Dear Miss Sutphen –

I to-day called on Mary's sister Mrs Yaurek – she said she expected another child within a month and she had no room for Mary – she said she thought Mary could return to the Newark asylum – or I might get a home for her in some other home –

I have been going through a severe nervous strain – my home is broken up and I have felt it might be better for Mary's health to not continually be around me - for fear she might grow depressed -

I wrote my last letter to you under severe nervous strain -
I would like to recall the part that read
please publish it - would you rather (under present conditions) that I return Mary to you or have me find her
another home?
You can mail to 2723
Washington St -
With best wishes - Sincerely
Lydia B. Grimm -
